Quick personal observation. I go to Wish Valley surgery four times a year for injections by the nurse. The doctors waiting room is always empty.

Whilst the Northridge Surgery is no longer fit for purpose, is there a need for a brand new combined surgery?

Modern trends would suggest (REDACTED [TWBC] sons new successful venture) that internet consultation is the way forward.

The location of the Northridge Surgery should be moved to the grounds of the cottage hospital. Most of the patients drive, although parking is non existent in the village.

The doctors surgery should not be linked to this new proposed Birchfield development and is only being attached to give the building application some gravitas.

Delete all reference to the doctors surgery.
